

Students and New Professionals:

What can the 2022 UCOWR/NIWR Water Resources Conference do for you?

Come and see!

Build your professional skills, build your community.

FIELD TRIPS:

- USFS Coweeta Hydrologic Lab
- Hunnicutt Creek, Clemson U.
- Reedy River Walk, Greenville, SC

MENTORING:

- NEW! Conference Mentoring Program (connecting interested students and new professionals with established professionals in their fields)
- Career Panel for Students and Young Professionals
- Breakfast Roundtable Discussions

WORKSHOPS:

- Introduction to GIS Workshop
- Getting to the Heart of Science Communication
- Macroinvertebrates ID Workshop
- Water Monitoring Demonstration hosted by In-Situ

NETWORKING:

- Welcome Reception and Poster Session
- Social Outing Drop-in for Students and Professionals
- Speed Networking for Students
- Student Trivia Event

Share your work, exchange ideas, develop collaborations.

- Plenary speakers, panel discussions, special technical sessions, workshops, posters, and more. Explore our 2022 Preliminary Program.
- Our conference includes people from across the many specializations working with water resources, thus fostering interdisciplinary engagement opportunities.
- Student budget-friendly registration - Early Bird rates through Friday, April 29, 2022: Graduate Student Full Conference = $125, Graduate Student One Day Only = $100, Undergraduate Full Conference = $50.

The 2022 UCOWR/NIWR Annual Water Resources Conference

June 14, 2022 - June 16, 2022

The Hyatt Regency
Greenville, South Carolina

Register Here